Thank you very much. Wow. Well, I want to thank you all very much. This is great. These are our friends. We have thousands of friends on this incredible movement. This was a movement like nobody's ever seen before, and frankly, this was, I believe, the greatest political movement of all time. There's never been anything like this in this country, and maybe beyond. And now it's going to reach a new level of importance, because we're going to help our country heal. We're going to help our country heal. We have a country that needs help and it needs help very badly. We're going to fix our borders, we're going to fix everything about our country. And we made history for a reason tonight, and the reason is going to be just that. We overcame obstacles that nobody thought possible, and it is now clear that we've achieved the most incredible political thing.

I want to thank the American people for the extraordinary honor of being elected your 47th president and your 45th president. And to every citizen, I will fight for you, for your family and your future. Every single day I will be fighting for you, and with every breath in my body I will not rest until we have delivered the strong, safe and prosperous America that our children deserve and that you deserve. This will truly be the golden age of America. This is a magnificent victory for the American people that will allow us to make America great again.

We are now winning in Michigan, Arizona, Nevada and Alaska, which would result in us carrying at least 315 electoral votes. We also have won the popular vote. That was great. Winning the popular vote was very nice, I will tell you. It's a great feeling of love. We have a great feeling of love in this very large room with unbelievable people standing by my side. These people have been incredible. They've made the journey with me, and we're going to make you very happy. We're going to make you very proud of your vote. I hope that you're going to be looking back someday and say that was one of the truly important moments of my life when I voted for this group of people.

America has given us an unprecedented and powerful mandate. We have taken back control of the Senate. And it also looks like we'll be keeping control of the House of Representatives.

I want to thank my beautiful wife Melania, first lady. She has done a great job, works very hard to help people. I want to thank my whole family, my amazing children. Don, Eric, Ivanka, Tiffany, Baron, Lara, Jared, Kimberly, Michael, thank you all. What a help.

I want to be the first to congratulate our great, now I can say, Vice President-elect of the United States, JD Vance, and his absolutely remarkable and beautiful wife Usha. He is a feisty guy. He just goes in and absolutely obliterates them.

A new star is born. Elon. He is an amazing guy. We were sitting together tonight. He's been two weeks in Philadelphia and different parts of Pennsylvania campaigning. Many people have told me that God spared my life for a reason, and that reason was to save our country and to restore America to greatness. And now we are going to fulfill that mission together.

Most of all, I want to thank the millions of hardworking Americans across the nation who have always been the heart and soul of this really great movement. We've been through so much together, and today you showed up in record numbers to deliver a victory, probably like no other. This was something, this was something special. And we're going to pay you back. We're going to do the best job. We're going to turn it around. It's got to be turned around. It's got to be turned around fast. And we are going to turn it around. We're going to do it in every way. This will forever be remembered as the day the American people regained control of their country.

We've built the biggest, the broadest, the most unified coalition they've never seen anything like it in all of American history. Young and old, men and women, rural and urban. African American, Hispanic American, Asian American, Arab American, Muslim American. We had everybody. And it was beautiful. It was a historic realignment uniting citizens of all backgrounds around a common core of common sense.

This is also a massive victory for democracy and for freedom. Together we're going to unlock America's glorious destiny.

I've said that many people have told me that God spared my life for a reason, and that reason was to save our country and to restore America to greatness. The task before us will not be easy, but I will bring every ounce of energy, spirit and fight that I have in my soul to the job that you've entrusted to me.

Just as I did in my first term, I will govern by a simple motto: promises made, promises kept. We're going to keep our promises. Nothing will stop me from keeping my word to you, the people. We will make America safe, strong, prosperous, powerful and free again.

It's time to put the divisions of the past four years behind us. It's time to unite. And we're going to try. Success will bring us together. We are going to start by all putting America first. Together we can truly make America great again for all Americans.

I want to just tell you what a great honor this is. I will not let you down. America's future will be bigger, better, bolder, richer, safer and stronger than it has ever been before. God bless you and God bless America. Thank you very much.
